IIMSAM'S SR. AMBASSADOR AT LARGE & ICONIC EMIRATI SINGER DR. HUSSEIN AL JASMI WILL BE THE FIRST ARAB ARTIST TO APPEAR IN THE PRESTIGIOUS ANNUAL EVENT AT THE 26TH ANNUAL 'CHRISTMAS' CHARITY EVENT IN THE VATICAN, TO BE HELD ON THE 15TH OF DECEMBER 2018.

IIMSAM'S Senior Ambassador At Large Iconic Emirati singer Dr. Hussain Al Jasmi is scheduled to perform at the annual Charity Christmas concert in the Vatican on Saturday 15 of December. H.E. Dr. Al Jasmi, will become the first Arab artist to perform at the event. His participation in the concert will be alongside the Grand Orchestra under the direction of Maestro Renato Serio.

"I have always been pleased to contribute to charitable work in order to create an environment conducive to a dignified life, respect, equality and peace, the values that we have grown on and inherited from the late Shaikh Zayed." Al Jasmi wrote on social media."*

Proceeds of this year's event will go to improving the livelihood of young refugees in Erbil (Iraq) and Uganda. by providing education and vocational training to them through Scholas Occurrentes - an international organization of public good created by Pope Francis- and Missioni Don Bosco, a charity organisation with humanitarian operations round the world. His performance is a nod to the policy adopted by the UAE to consolidate the values of inter-faith tolerance, moderation and intercultural exchange, as well as to continue creating channels of communication with all peoples worldwide, regardless of their ethnic, religious and cultural backgrounds. Notably, The UAE is the first country to establish a ministry for tolerance, the Ministry of Tolerance.
