Comments for the IIMSAM Newsletter by Secretary General R. Maradona:

"Ambassador Kawa has done an extraordinary humanitarian work on behalf of the IIMSAM in forming the Road Map in assisting the Refugee Population in Kurdistan and to establish a sustainable IIMSAM's Humanitarian Mission in Kurdistan." I am sure Dr. Zebari and Ambassador Kawa are perfectly capable of developing an adequate "Road Map" for the eventual recognition of IIMSAM in Kurdistan so we can get to work as soon as possible officially in saving lives.

Brief-Background on Kurdistan (Iraq) Refugee-Plight:

Kurdistan, with its population of approximately 5 million, has received over two million refugees as a result of armed conflict in the region. The refugees are mostly internally displaced persons (IDPs) from Southern Iraq and include refugees from Syria. Among the refugees there are more than 0.6 million children, most of whom are malnourished.
