SG-R.MARADONA LAUDS IIMSAM'S MOST PROLIFEROUS GOODWILL ROLE MODEL AMBASSADOR MRS. RAHEELA KHAN "AKA" THE MOTHER TEREZA OF PAKISTAN

THE RE-OPENING OF SCHOOLS IN PAKISTAN OFFICIALLY

With the re-opening of schools across Pakistan, IIMSAM' Prolific Goodwill Ambassador H.E Raheela Khan celebrated her school's occasion amid the Covid-19 Pandemic. "The impact of the COVID-19 crisis on health and human mobility threatens to roll back global commitments, including IIMSAM'S efforts of distribution within our EXO-Humanitarian Activities, and hinder ongoing support to those in need of assistance," none the less despite having contracted Covid-19 Ambassador Khan after many weeks in hospital recovered and she immediately resumed her humanitarian activities. Presently, she provides free educational facilities and daily meals to hundreds of underprivileged Burma Town children - Islamabad. Special care and SOPs are practiced daily during teaching and mealtime. These street children were prone to begging, garbage collection, and physical abuse otherwise. Her Excellency Khan has provided hope where there is none. For these children in need.

COMMENTS BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL OF IIMSAM REMIGIO MARADONA:

" I am hoping that the example of Ambassador Khan can provide inspiration to everyone in their efforts to work to together to address crisis, reduce the risk of future potential emergencies and deliver on the ambitious and inclusive vision of the 2030 Agenda."
