H.E. Sheikh Dr. Mohammed Saleh Al Dhaheri on going Exo-Humanitarian Activities in support of the IIMSAM Mandate this time at the world's largest Zaatari Refugee Camp in Jordan by proving imperative food items to the underprivileged communities not only in KSA but also among Jordan's refugee population and displaced families from Yemen.

SG R. Maradona Commented: "His remarkable efforts since 2015 have helped further the organization's fight against malnutrition, deprivation in places where all hope has been lost in particular areas of conflict. Since joining IIMSAM's "Pro Bono" Secretariat in 2015. Sh. Al Dhaheri is a humanitarian extraordinaire who cares and loves to help those in need." Since 2015 Sh. Al Dhaheri, under the IIMSAM "Pro Bono" Ambassadorship Programme, has contributed in-kind donations that have assisted thousands in Gaza, Jordan, KSA, Yemen, Syria. I am honored to work with His Excellency all these years, and I am looking forward to continuing working with him to help those who cannot help themselves."

Zaatari is a refugee camp in Jordan, located 10 kilometres east of Mafraq, which has gradually evolved into a permanent settlement; it is the world's largest camp for Syrian refugees. It was first opened on 28 July 2012 to host Syrians fleeing the violence in the ongoing Syrian Civil War that erupted in March 2011. UNHCR. As the lead agency for refugees in Jordan, UNHCR is also covering Camp Coordination, which includes overall strategic and intercamp operational coordination as well as within the sector working groups.
