

IIMSAM NEWS BULLETIN #002067

Released: 11 OCT 2021 - EDT.

IIMSAM SUPPORTS STUDENTS IN EGYPT THROUGH THE EFFORTS OF ITS PROLIFIC HUMANITARIAN IN EGYPT - ADVISER MR. WAEL FAYED BY DELIVERING ESSENTIAL SCHOOL BAGS TO STUDENTS IN AN UNDERPRIVILEGED SECTOR OF DUKKI DISTRICT, GIZA GOVERNORATE IN EGYPT.

IIMSAM, through the uber efforts of its Prolific Humanitarian and Secretariat Advisor Member Mr. Wael Fayed, continues exo-humanitarian efforts by launching a series of initiatives to support needy families in Egypt; in his role as an adviser of IIMSAM. To meet their needs during these tough post- Covid 19 pandemic times worldwide, he also supports UN Sustainable Development Goal#4 and the UN Decade of Action 2020-2030. One hundred school bags were distributed to 100 students in the underprivileged Dukki area in Egypt. Each bag contains school notebooks, a color box, water bottle, rubbers, pens, and pencils, all packed in school bags.

COMMENTS BY IIMSAM'S - SG - REMIGIO MARADONA:

"IIMSAM is an out-of-the-box thinking IGO. Thus, Humanitarian work always needs the efforts of people like our Advisor Wael Fayed, who deals with people by heart and mind which turn into concrete deeds, not lip service." He added: "IIMSAM is proud to have in its team a humanitarian extraordinaire like Advisor Fayed, who works tirelessly, and thinks about nothing but supporting the efforts of the organization and the people of his nation Egypt."

EXO - HUMANITARIAN ACTIVITIES

SEE MORE OF THE IIMSAM - IGO ON SOCIAL MEDIA

<https://www.facebook.com/iimsamigo/> - <https://www.instagram.com/iimsamigo/> - <https://www.twitter.com/iimsamigo>