IIMSAM'S GOODWILL AMBASSADOR IN MEXICO DISTRIBUTES FOOD SACHETS AS WELL AS NUTRITIONAL AWARENES IN UNDERPRIVILEGED INDEGENOUS RURAL AREAS IN MEXICO.

Comments by IIMSAM'S Goodwill Ambassador in Mexico Mrs. Laura Sepulveda: " I am here on behalf of Fundación Grandeza de las Mujeres Mexicanas and as Goodwill Ambassador Mexico Region of IIMSAM, Intergovernmental Autonomous Institution against Malnutrition adhered to the UN, to extend my deep gratitude for the support of social and humanitarian issues, the genuine interest to help causes and spread awareness in support of affirmative action initiatives and programs. I look forward to working closely with you to achieve the goals with concrete deeds on behalf of the less fortunate. I appreciate the time and guidance you may be willing to contribute to lend your talents and expertise to help further the efforts of our institutions we represent in support of the United Nations system for a better world, spreading well-being and together making sure that no one is left behind. The Indigenous communities were provided with nutritional awareness and food sachets. In this event, it was also provided financial support for their Groceries.
